AMENDED MAILING LISTS
AND SECTION 341 NOTICES

STANDING ORDER NO. 99-3

Whenever schedules or amendments add new entities or make corrections to mailing addresses, the debtor must file an amended mailing list with the names and addresses of entities to be added or corrected with the document. N.D. TX. L.B.R. 1009.1(a). When creditors are added by amendment to the schedules after the original notice of the meeting of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) has been sent, the debtor's attorney (or debtor, if pro se) must give notice to each added creditor of the filing of the bankruptcy case and all applicable bar dates and deadlines. N.D. TX. L.B.R. 1009.1(b).

On several occasions, a debtor has filed an amended mailing list immediately prior to the service of the notice of the meeting of creditors by the clerk of court. When that happens, the clerk of court cannot timely serve the notice of the meeting of creditors on creditors added to the mailing list. Lack of a timely notice of the meeting of creditors results in resetting the meeting of creditors and other administrative problems. To assure timely notice of the meeting of creditors on all creditors and to minimize resetting the meeting of creditors because of a lack of notice to creditors caused by amendments to the mailing list, the clerk of court will provide notice of the meeting of creditors only to those creditors identified on the originally filed mailing list. The debtor's attorney or the debtor, if pro se, must serve the notice of the meeting of creditors on all other creditors. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that debtor's attorney or the debtor, if pro se, shall serve notice of the meeting of creditors under 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) on all creditors added to the mailing list by an amendment whether filed before or after the notice of the meeting of creditors served by the clerk of court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that debtor's attorney, or the debtor, if pro se, shall serve notice of a continued or rescheduled meeting of creditors on all creditors.

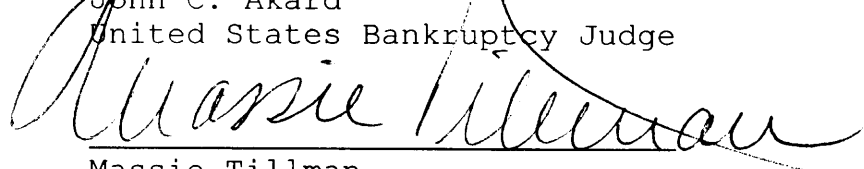

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this standing order shall apply until further court order or until an amendment to the Local Bankruptcy Rules of this District.
